Supporting Information

Please pay particular attention to this section.

It is the most important part of your application, as it is where you can tell us what makes you suitable for this job.

Always be specific. Do not use general phrases such as, "I have the necessary skills...", or "I am confident that I can do the job well...". The management team needs to know you meet the requirements of the job based on the evidence you provide, including relevant details of and current or previous employment.

Any experience gained outside paid employment may be just as important, e.g. you may have done voluntary work in the community, have skills acquired through household administration or have other interests.
