Welcome to La Scala Function Suite

Wedding Brochure

Welcome to La Scala function suite here at Bodmin Jail in the very centre and heart of Cornwall. With its' Gothic high vaulted ceiling, incredible décor, and an atmosphere hard to compare in Cornwall; it is just the perfect venue for your special day.

This stunning venue is the function suite with a real difference for your special day. As a very popular local dining venue we understand keeping our prices complete is crucial, and we understand the need to budget, but still wanting a great day.

Whether you want just a small informal wedding, large formal wedding, or holding your engagement, hen, or stag party, we can look after you.

We are licensed for music and dance, also to dispense alcohol until twelve midnight. Should you require a licence until one am there is a modest charge of £30.00 for the application.

We can cover all your wedding requirements, from the basic wedding planning up to a grand day and night of beautiful memories.

We will liaise with local companies on your behalf, such as local accommodation deals, photographers, cars, flower arrangements, cake makers, balloons, discos, entertainers and wedding favours.

These are the standard requirements for a wedding, but we also offer things that are a little more bespoke, such as a balloon drop of hundreds of balloons on the night time party, chimney sweep, a falcon to bring the wedding rings to you, releasing two doves at the end of your civil ceremony; we can even deal with your RSVP's by setting up and managing your web address such as JanetandJohnswedding.com

We have a fantastic brigade of chefs who can accommodate all your dietary and allergy requirements, as we try to source all our ingredients locally, when it comes to children we offer a 50% discount to guests under the age of fourteen, and for those a little younger we make our own homemade chicken or fish goujons with chips or potatoes served with peas, beans or lettuce, tomato and cucumber.

Finally, please do not hesitate to contact us regarding available dates we have, and to make an appointment with us.
